NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The final session of a memorable week in the stock market was characterized by business and moderate interest. Exchange reports of 2 to 6 points were made by speculators, equipment sales and takings, with a sprinkling of miscellaneous specialists, but these were partially balanced on the market by all other classes. The few upwardly rated included General Motors, which made up almost all its gains despite sales amounted to 1,000,000 shares. The market was heavily trading in the stocks that the actual contraction of about $60,000,000 was accompanied by a decrease of almost $30,000,000 in actual excess reserves, the same time clearing losses having depleted their reserves in the joint federal reserve bank by eighty over $20,000,000.

Bonds were firm. The Liberty group was again inclined to ease. Total gains per value aggregated $1,500,000.
